How This Course Works:

Mode of delivery: This course is 100% online and operates on an asynchronous basis. There are no required class sessions when you must be logged onto CarmenCanvas at a certain time. Zoom meetings with one or several students to discuss specific issues can be scheduled at the convenience of the parties involved.

Pace of online activities: This course is divided into modules (groups of related topics). Each module is designed to cover about 6 days. Modules are released to students on a flow basis, at the beginning of each module "window." There is a graded assignment due at the end of each module. Students are expected to keep pace with assignment deadlines. See Navigating the Content Modules (below) for more information.

Credit hours and work expectations: This course is 3 credit hours. Thus, according to Ohio State policy, students should expect to devote an average of 3 hours a week to work associated with CarmenCanvas and an additional 6 hours a week to "homework" (notably, assigned reading and assignment preparation).

Attendance and participation requirements: Because this course is fully online and runs asynchronously, there are no formal attendance requirements. Participation requirements for each content module appear elsewhere in the syllabus. There is a major graded activity due every 9 days throughout the term.

Navigating the Content Modules:

The following discussion should help you understand how to use the content modules – what tasks you should complete during each module, how to sequence and spread these tasks over the two-week window, and how to budget your time to get everything done on schedule. Consider the following time template as a suggested method for scheduling your study time and reading assessment assignments:

- The first page of each module is labeled Learning Objectives and Reading Assignment. You should start here. The page covers module content, learning objectives and reading assignment. All these tasks are designed to prepare you for the module Reading Assessment (see below).
- You may need to reread the assigned chapter to revisit content you didn't fully understand the first time around. Don't hesitate to do this!!! Your objective is not to memorize content, but to satisfy yourself that you understood what you read. Understanding is all-important. You'll be able to use both texts and your notes on all the module Reading Assessments, so there's no need to memorize anything.
- As you approach the last 2 or 3 days of the module window (dates on both the syllabus and CarmenCanvas), in preparation for the module's Reading Assessment, review the assigned reading once again to refresh your knowledge of the topics covered. The more familiar you are with chapter content and where topics can be found in the textbook, the better you're likely to do on the module Reading Assessment.
- The Reading Assessment quizzes use a set of multiple-choice and some short essay questions to evaluate your understanding of the topics you covered in the module reading assignment. You may have read every word in the assigned chapter, but did you really understand what you read?
- Once you finish your chapter review, decide when you want to take the Reading Assessment Quiz:
 - Assessments can be found on the website under each module. The due date is shown in the course calendar which appears later in the syllabus.
 - You can use your texts and notes to help you with answers. However, no one may assist you on an Assessment (testing runs on the University Honor System).
- When you get your Assessment score (grading is automatic), please do not hesitate to reach out to the instructor through email with questions about your performance.

These comments provide general guidance on activities associated with the content modules. Additional information is available on the website, where you also will find detailed instructions accompanying each module Reading Assessment.

Grading Scale:

The course consists of the following graded tasks (with total points possible):

Each content module (15 modules):

- | | |
|---|------------|
| • Personal introduction (see course preparation module) | 15 points |
| • Reading assessment quizzes (13 quizzes at 15 points each) | 195 points |
| • Case study (2 at 15 points each) | 30 points |
| • Final Exam | 110 points |

Total points possible	350 points
------------------------------	--------------------------

The total number of points you earn divided by the total number of points possible (350) yields your Total Percent Score. This score is compared to the course grading scale (shown below) to determine your final letter grade. The grading scale used in this course is the University grading scale:

Grade	Total Percent Score
---------------------	-----------------------------------

A	93% or better
A-	90% or better
B+	87% or better
B	83% or better
B-	80% or better
C+	77% or better
C	73% or better
C-	70% or better
D+	67% or better
D	60% or better
E	Less than 60%

CarmenCanvas access:

You will need to use BuckeyePass multi-factor authentication to access your courses in CarmenCanvas. To ensure you can always connect to CarmenCanvas, we recommend you take the following steps:

- Register several devices in case something happens to your primary device. Visit the BuckeyePass – Adding a Device help article for step-by-step instructions.
- Request passcodes to keep as a backup authentication option. When you see the Duo login screen on your computer, click Enter a Passcode and then click the Text-me-new-codes button; you'll get ten passcodes good for 365 days that can each be used once.

Policy on Late Assignment Submissions:

Due dates for graded assignments are contained in the syllabus and posted on CarmenCanvas. If you fail to submit an assignment by the deadline, or you miss an assignment altogether, you should contact (email) the instructor as soon as possible with an explanation. If the explanation you provide is acceptable, you may be given an opportunity to make-up the work within a reasonably short time following the original assignment deadline, possibly with no grading penalty (depending upon your explanation).

If your explanation is unacceptable, or you fail to contact the instructor as soon as possible (within several days, at most) after the original assignment deadline, a grade of zero will be entered for the assignment on the website. If illness, injury, or some other pressing reason prevents you from contacting the instructor reasonably promptly, have someone contact the instructor for you (if possible). If a prompt response is not possible under the circumstances, please contact the instructor as soon as prudent.

Instructor Feedback and Response Expectations:

You may contact the instructor at any time by email. You should clearly state the purpose of your email and limit the number of questions you ask in a single email message. Do not ask questions that can be answered simply by consulting the course syllabus or the course website or by contacting a classmate.

Call the OSU Help Line (614-688-HELP) with any CarmenCanvas questions.

With respect to turnaround time, the instructor will make every effort to grade posted written assignments and provide feedback within 5 calendar days of an assignment due date and respond to student emails (sent through CarmenCanvas) within 12 hours of receipt during the week (possibly longer on weekends).

A Reading Assessment is graded automatically by CarmenCanvas when you submit one for grading. Scores are posted to the Course Grade Sheet page. You won't be able to determine which questions you missed; however, if you are concerned about your score, you should contact the instructor for assistance.

Academic integrity:

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the OSU Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that students have read and understand the University's Code of Student Conduct, and that students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments in fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidance established in the University's Code of Student Conduct and this syllabus may constitute Academic Misconduct.

The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335-23-04) defines academic misconduct as: "Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the University or subverts the educational process." Examples of such misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying work produced by another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the University's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an excuse for academic misconduct, so I strongly recommend you review the Code of Student Conduct and specifically, those sections dealing with academic misconduct.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If the COAM determines that you have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), sanctions for misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the University.

If you have questions about this policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please feel free to contact me.

Disability Services:

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible for students. If you expect (or experience) academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic, or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with SLDS. After registration, please arrange with me as soon as possible to discuss accommodations so they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; located at 098 Baker Hall, 113 West 12th Avenue.

Grievances and Solving Problems:

According to University policy, if you have a problem with this course, you should try to resolve the grievance concerning a grade or academic practice by speaking first with the instructor. Then, if necessary, take your case to the department chairperson, associate dean for programs in the college, and to the provost, in that order. Specific procedures are outlined in Faculty Rule 3335-7-23. Grievances against graduate, research or teaching assistants should be submitted first to the supervising instructor, then to the chairperson of the assistant's department.

Safety and Health Requirements:

Teaching staff and students are required to comply with and stay up to date on all University safety and health guidance. Non-compliance will be warned first, and disciplinary actions will be taken for repeated offenses.
