Office Hours by appt.

Class Meeting Schedule:

Monday Wednesday Friday 3:00 pm – 3:50 pm

Schoenbaum 320

Course Materials:

Required: Kubasek, Nancy. Dynamic Business Law. New York: McGraw-Hill, 2020. Sixth Edition. See below for the options on where to get the book. Connect is required for this course.

Course Description:

This course is an introduction to the U.S. legal system and sources of law and an analysis of basic legal concepts related to business decisions. Primary areas covered include torts, contracts and employment law. It will involve discussion, questions and answers on the materials, and case studies. Class participation will be expected. Students will be expected to discuss the cases and problems in each chapter covered. Homework is required. 1.5 credit hours.

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, students should:

- understand the legal framework within which American business operates
- be familiar with basic legal concepts relevant to business decisions
- have gained experience in legal analysis
- have improved their communication skills

How This Course Works:

Mode of delivery: This course is 100% in person. There is the possibility of Zoom review sessions if students have an interest in holding them.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 1.5 semester credit hour course. Since it only meets for half of the semester, according to Ohio State policy, students should expect around an average of 3 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (time in class) in addition to 6 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example).

Attendance and participation requirements: Attendance is not required; however, participation is part of your grade and participation cannot occur without attendance. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Participating in class: You will be expected to have read the assigned reading for each session. You will be expected to be prepared to discuss the assignment and may be called on. If you have a situation that might cause you to miss a class, please contact via e mail BEFORE the scheduled class. If you tell me in person before or after class, please also follow up with an e mail as I may not remember our conversation.
- Office hours: Coming to office hours is optional; however, based on your class performance you may be requested to schedule a meeting to discuss your progress.

Course technology:

For help with your password, university email, Carmen, or any other technology issues, questions, or requests, contact the Ohio State IT Service Desk. Standard support hours are available at ocio.osu.edu/help/hours, and support for urgent issues is available 24/7.

- Self-Service and Chat support: ocio.osu.edu/help
- Phone: 614-688-4357(HELP)
- Email: servicedesk@osu.edu
- TDD: 614-688-8743

Baseline technical skills for online courses

- Basic computer and web-browsing skills
- Navigating Carmen: for questions about specific functionality, see the Canvas Student Guide.

Carmen access

You will need to use BuckeyePass multi-factor authentication to access your courses in Carmen. To ensure that you are able to connect to Carmen at all times, it is recommended that you take the following steps:

- Register multiple devices in case something happens to your primary device. Visit the BuckeyePass - Adding a Device help article for step-by-step instructions.
- Request passcodes to keep as a backup authentication option. When you see the Duo login screen on your computer, click Enter a Passcode and then click the Text me new codes button that appears. This will text you ten passcodes good for 365 days that can each be used once.
- Download the Duo Mobile application to all of your registered devices for the ability to generate one-time codes in the event that you lose cell, data, or Wi-Fi service.

If none of these options will meet the needs of your situation, you can contact the IT Service Desk at 614-688-4357 (HELP) and IT support staff will work out a solution with you.

Grading and Evaluation:

Graded assignments may come in three forms, and students should note the expectations for each in the descriptions of our class assignments below.

- Independent Work (👤): Strictly non-collaborative, original-individual work. You may discuss this assignment only with your instructor. Discussions with other individuals, either in person or electronically, are strictly prohibited.
- Collaboration Required (👥): An explicit expectation for collaboration among students either in-class or outside (i.e. group work).
- Optional-Collaboration (👥🔴): Students are permitted, but not required, to discuss the assignment or ideas with each other. However, all submitted work must be one's original and individual creation.

Assignment Name	Points / Weight	Assignment Type
Midterm	280	↑
Final	380	↑
Attendance/participation	200	↑↑↑

Course Assignments:

Reading assignments for each class will be in Carmen under the Assignments section (see schedule below) by due date. Most readings will be from the assigned textbook; however, there will be some additional readings posted on Carmen. Any additional readings will be in the Assignment for that day. Homework assignments through McGraw Hill Connect. They are Smart Book assignments that will review the concepts in the book. You will be expected to do the reading and assignments BEFORE our scheduled class time. Class will be a discussion of the material with you volunteering and/or me asking you questions. Office hours are also available for additional help.

Absence and Makeup Policy: If you know you will be unable to attend class or complete a homework assignment on time, please email me BEFORE the scheduled class or the due date of the homework. Your email should contain both the course number and time of class in the subject line so that it gets to the proper mailbox. Emails not containing the course number and time in the subject line will be disregarded. If you email me and have not received a response within 24 hours, assume the email was not received and either resend or contact me by phone. If you miss an assignment and believe you have an acceptable reason, please contact me as soon as possible. Any adjustments are entirely within my discretion.

Book Options:

There are several options for purchasing the book. Please be sure to check the ISBN. There is another book with a similar name but with a different ISBN and is not the correct book for this class. We are only covering a portion of the book. The book is also used for BUSFIN 4510. McGraw Connect will be required for this course. You can purchase directly from the McGraw Hill website when accessing the first assignment for the cheapest option.

Academic Conduct:

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the University's Code of Student Conduct, and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the University's Code of Student Conduct (<https://trustees.osu.edu/bylawsand-rules/code>), this syllabus, instructions posted in Carmen, and instructions given in class/lectures, including any sharing, posting, or distribution of any assignment, assessment activity, or solution via any method may constitute Academic Misconduct (<https://oaa.osu.edu/academic-integrity-and-misconduct>)

The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335-23-04) defines academic misconduct as: Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the University or subvert the educational process. Examples of academic misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying the work of another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the University's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an excuse for academic misconduct, so I recommend that you review the Code of Student Conduct and, specifically, the sections dealing with academic misconduct.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the University. If you have any concerns or questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me before taking individual action.

Student COVID-related Accommodation Process:

The university is committed to supporting students and program participants with COVID-19 based risk factors. Student Life Disability Services, in conjunction with the Office of Institutional Equity, will work with students who are vulnerable to complications from COVID-19 to ensure that they have the necessary resources to participate in university life as safely as possible. Ohio State students from any campus may submit a COVID-related accommodation request. Students registered with Student Life Disability Services can work directly with their assigned Access Specialist to modify their accommodations or make additional COVID-based accommodation requests.

Disability Services:

The university strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. In light of the current pandemic, students seeking to request COVID-related accommodations may do so through the university's request process, managed by Student Life Disability Services. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic, or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Grievances and Solving Problems:

According to University Policies, if you have a problem with this class, you should seek to resolve the grievance concerning a grade or academic practice by speaking first with the instructor or professor. Then, if necessary, take your case to the department chairperson, associate dean for programs in the college, and to the provost, in that order. Specific procedures are outlined in Faculty Rule 3335-7-23. Grievances against graduate, research, and teaching assistants should be submitted first to the supervising instructor, then to the chairperson of the assistant's department

Accessibility of Course Technology:

This online course requires use of CarmenCanvas (Ohio State's learning management system) and other online communication and multimedia tools. If you need additional services to use these technologies, please request accommodations as early as possible.

- CarmenCanvas accessibility (go.osu.edu/canvas-accessibility)
- Streaming audio and video
- CarmenZoom accessibility (go.osu.edu/zoom-accessibility)

Mental Health:

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University's Student Life Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) is here to support you. If you find yourself feeling isolated, anxious, or overwhelmed, on-demand mental health resources (go.osu.edu/ccsondemand) are available. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766. 24-hour emergency help is available through the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline website (suicidepreventionlifeline.org) or by calling 1-800-273-8255\(TALK\). The Ohio State Wellness app (go.osu.edu/wellnessapp) is also a great resource.

Harassment, Discrimination, & Sexual Misconduct Free Environment:

The Ohio State University is committed to building and maintaining a community to reflect diversity and to improve opportunities for all. All Buckeyes have the right to be free from harassment, discrimination, and sexual misconduct. Ohio State does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, pregnancy (childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery therefrom), race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, academic programs, admission, and employment. Members of the university community also have the right to be free from all forms of sexual misconduct: sexual harassment, sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, and sexual exploitation.

To report harassment, discrimination, sexual misconduct, or retaliation and/or seek confidential and non-confidential resources and supportive measures, contact the Office of Institutional Equity:

1. Online reporting form at equity.osu.edu,
2. Call 614-247-5838 or TTY 614-688-8605,
3. Or email equity@osu.edu

The university is committed to stopping sexual misconduct, preventing its recurrence, eliminating any hostile environment, and remedying its discriminatory effects. All university employees have reporting responsibilities to the Office of Institutional Equity to ensure the university can take appropriate action:

- All university employees, except those exempted by legal privilege of confidentiality or expressly identified as a confidential reporter, have an obligation to report incidents of sexual assault immediately.
- The following employees have an obligation to report all other forms of sexual misconduct as soon as practicable but at most within five workdays of becoming aware of such information: 1. Any human resource professional (HRP); 2. Anyone who supervises faculty, staff, students, or volunteers; 3. Chair/director; and 4. Faculty member.
