

Fisher College of Business GE-L Courses

The Ohio State University's Legacy General Education (GE-L) is an integral part of your undergraduate business education. It is designed to provide you with a better understanding of society's traditions and past, its accomplishments and aspirations, its relation to and responsibility for the natural world, its diversity and plurality, and its problems and needs. The goal of the GE-L is aimed at helping you develop skills, competencies, and breadth of knowledge to become educated, productive citizens. For updates to this list, contact your academic advisor or visit <https://fisher.osu.edu/undergraduate/academics>.

Each course may be used to fulfill only one category, except for Social Diversity and Global Studies when appropriate.
