

Media Announcement

2012

For immediate release

WHAT NEXT FOR HEALTHCARE REFORM?

Thursday October 4, 2012 @ 7:30 pm on KCPT

KANSAS CITY, MO, September 11, 2012: More than two years after Congress passed, and the President signed the Affordable Care Act, KCPT goes on location to get a status report on how Kansas and Missouri are implementing the federal healthcare law. Nick Haines talks with regional health leaders and looks at how the law is impacting small business owners, the uninsured, college students and those with pre-existing medical conditions. Is the law working as planned? And what about efforts in Kansas and Missouri to block some provisions from going into effect?

Guests include:

Jay Anghoff, Regional Director
U.S. Health Department

Andrea Routh, Executive Director
Missouri Health Advocacy Alliance

Sheldon Weisgrau, Director
Health Reform Resource Project

Ryan Barker, Public Policy Director
Missouri Foundation for Health

Cindy Hermes
Kansas Insurance Commission

Contact:

Nick Haines
nhaines@kcpt.org
816-398-4263

---

1

KCPT is a nonprofit, community-owned television station serving the greater Kansas City area that provides programming and services—on air and off—that entertain, educate and enrich the community. For more information about KCPT's programs and services, or to become a member and support public television in Kansas City, please go to www.KCPT.org.