

Media Announcement

2012

For immediate release

Congratulations Joyce DiDonato and Kansas City Symphony

KANSAS CITY, MO, December 6, 2012: KCPT's production of Homecoming: The Kansas City Symphony Presents Joyce DiDonato took center stage on the PBS Arts Summer Festival last July. Now the Grammy's have honored its soundtrack with a nomination for Best Classical Vocal Solo.

Kliff Kuehl, KCPT's President and CEO remarked, "It was incredible to partner with the Kansas City Symphony and to put this production on the world's largest stage, shining a light on the new Kauffman Center. We congratulate Joyce DiDonato and the Kansas City Symphony."

From Frank Byrne, Executive Director of the Kansas City Symphony: "We are very proud to have been nominated for another Grammy award, this time with the magnificent Joyce DiDonato. This nomination speaks well of the incredible talent of our own Kansas City Symphony and Music Director Michael Stern, and we hope that even more people will enjoy our music as a result."

KCPT extends its congratulations to these amazing hometown musicians for this success and recognition.

Contact:
Angee Simmons
KCPT Producer for Homecoming
816-756-3580
asimmons@kcpt.org

1

KCPT is a nonprofit, community-owned television station serving the greater Kansas City area that provides programming and services—on air and off—that entertain, educate and enrich the community. For more information about KCPT's programs and services, or to become a member and support public television in Kansas City, please go to www.KCPT.org.