“Ask The Man Who Owns One”

Company Slogan

This 32,000 mile original auto was donated to the museum by Norm Knight, who is well known within the car collecting community as a Packard historian, and has owned and restored nearly 200 Packards.

Those familiar with the Gilmore Car Museum know Norm Knight as a former Executive Director, serving from 1980 to 1990. During his tenure, Norm evolved founder Donald Gilmore’s original vision for his collection into a renowned museum of automotive heritage. Norm was also instrumental in establishing the Classic Car Club of America Museum here on the Gilmore campus.
