FIFA 19 RULESET

Tournament Format:

- Qualifiers are a single elimination bracket. If you lose, you are out of the qualifier.
- Grand Finals on Sunday will be a double elimination bracket.

Match Format:

- Should the match be tied after regulation time, classic extra time must be played. If the match is still tied, a penalty shootout will decide the winner.

Game Rules:

- Game Speed: Normal
- Difficulty Setting: World Class
- Match length: 5 minute halves.
- Defending: Tactical Defending ONLY
- Custom formations: Not allowed
- Custom Tactics: Allowed, however players must set tactics up in the pre-match time only
- Weather: Clear (unless you and your opponent agree to change)
- Injuries: On
- Offsides: On
- Bookings: On
- Time/Score display: On
- Camera: Default
- Volume Settings: Default
- Radar: ANY
- Home Auto Switching: User Settings
- Away Auto Switching: User Settings
- Handball: OFF
- Referee: Card Strictness & Foul Strictness (both must be average)
- Stadium: Neutral ground unless agreed otherwise
- Replays: if you score a goal please do not watch all the replays, once is fine.

Teams:

- All standard 'Kick-off' teams are allowed except for 'all-star' teams
- The same team is allowed on both sides should opponents choose so
- If opponent chooses to play international it is up to you to play a club or international side

General Rules:

- No controlling of the goalkeeper by means of the 'touchpad'
- Time Wasting: Should you be leading in a game and start passing around in the back you will be immediately disqualified. Please call an admin if you suspect your opponent is wasting time. Should you wait until after the game, the result will stay as is, as there is nothing for the admins to rule on.
- No cursing, shouting, bumping or distracting your opponent.
- Pause the game only if you have the ball and have given your opponent notification that you are going to pause. Both players must agree they are ready to resume the match.
- The ball must be passed back once before you can cross in to the opponents half, you cannot run in to his half straight from kick off.
- If you set up your controller, please save it on temporary assigned slot.
- It is up to you as player to check your controls before the game starts, the admins and organisers will not be held liable for controllers that are not set up.
- Should a console freeze alert one of the admins. If it is still in the 1st half the game will be replayed full but the game continues from the score upon which the screen froze. If it froze in the 2nd half the game is restarted and only one half of the game is played and the score is as it was upon freezing of the console.
