GAME NOTES

- DEEP SEA FISHIN': The Rockford IceHogs lead the lifetime series against the San Jose Barracuda with a 3-1-0-0 record. Since their inception in 2015-16, the Barracuda have traveled to Rockford twice, snagging a win and taking a loss. Conversely, the IceHogs have traveled to the Bay Area twice, collecting two wins.
- GETTING BACK TO THE ROOTS: In their junior hockey days, IceHogs defenseman Dennis Gilbert and Barracuda defenseman Nick DeSimone played alongside one another for the Buffalo Jr. Sabres in the Ontario Junior Hockey League. Gilbert has tallied seven points (1g, 6a) this season with Rockford while DeSimone has registered 19 points (5g, 14a) with San Jose.
- OH MY COSH: Ian McCoshen is listed in NHL 20 as the highest rated player on the Rockford roster with an overall rating of 79. He leads all IceHogs with 60 NHL games played in his career. In the 2017-18 campaign, McCoshen spent 38 games with the Florida Panthers in which he collected three goals, one assist and 25 penalty minutes.
- FAMILY DYNASTY: John Quenneville is the second-highest rated forward on the IceHogs roster in NHL 20 with an overall rating of 75. The Edmonton, Alberta native was drafted 30th overall in the 2014 NHL draft by the New Jersey Devils and spent three seasons with their AHL affiliate. The eldest of the Quenneville brothers, Peter, was drafted in 2013 by the Columbus Blue Jackets and played seven games with Rockford this season. The youngest of the three, David, was drafted in 2016 by the New York Islanders and made his AHL debut with the Bridgeport Sound Tigers in 2017-18.
