GAME NOTES

- HATEFUL 8: Rockford and Manitoba will meet eight times during the 2019-20 season. The eight games are tied for the most matchups between the two teams in a single season in Rockford's AHL history and marks only the second time the teams are scheduled for eight meetings. The last and only other time the two teams met for eight games was when the IceHogs went 4-3-0-1 in 2016-17.
- SIK 'EM: Tyler Sikura extended his point streak against the Moose to three games with an assist during the teams' most recent meeting on Dec. 31. Overall, Sikura leads all IceHogs skaters in career scoring against Manitoba with nine points (4g, 5a) in 11 contests. He has picked up points in six of those 11 games with a pair of multi-point efforts.
- 30 FOR 30: The IceHogs have fired 30+ shots on goal in each of the four matchups against the Moose this season, including the team's season-high shot total of 41 on Nov. 8. Rockford now enters Wednesday with 30+ shots on goal in eight straight games against the Moose dating to the first game of the series in the 2018-19 season.
