GAME NOTES

- HOT HOGS: The IceHogs have won seven of their last 10 games and boast points in eight of those 10 contests dating to Oct. 30. Only Tucson (8) and Milwaukee (10) have more wins over its last 10 games than Rockford.
- THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED: Rockford has notched points in back-to-back road games for the first time this season after finishing the weekend with a 1-0-0-1 record. Previously, the IceHogs went 2-4-0-0 over their first six road games of the year.
- WE'RE OVER IT: The Hogs improved to 3-0 in overtime following Sunday's 3-2 OTW at the Rampage. The IceHogs set the team's AHL record for OT wins last season with a 12-4 record in such games and are now 15-4 in OT dating to the beginning of the 2018-19 season.
- POWER UP: The IceHogs enter Tuesday with six power-play goals over their last eight games. The Hogs scored just one power-play goal over their first nine games of the season prior to the current stretch. Six different skaters have accounted for the six power-play goals.
- CRAM IT: Joe Cramarossa extended his point streak against the Rampage to three straight games with an assist during Sunday's OTW. Cramarossa has combined for four points with two goals and two assists in three games against San Antonio this year.
- SIK 'EM: Tyler Sikura's eight total goals on the season exceed his entire goal production from 50 games during the 2018-19 campaign. His eight tallies since Oct. 19 are tied for sixth among all AHL skaters and are just three shy of the league lead.
