GAME NOTES

- CARL, GOOD TO SEE YOU!: Along with leading the leading the team in scoring against Grand Rapids this season, Lucas Carlsson also enters Friday's game with the most career points (11) against the Griffins of any current IceHogs skater. Carlsson has tallied points in four of his last six games against Grand Rapids with six total assists over that stretch.
- HOT HOGS: Rockford has won 10 of its last 14 games and boast points in 11 of those 14 contests dating to Oct. 30. The IceHogs have also notched points in six of their last seven appearances and are currently on a four-game home winning streak and a three-game overall winning streak.
- 3 FOR ME: The IceHogs boast a 12-0-0-1 clip when scoring at least three goals, with the lone defeat a shootout loss at Texas. Dating back to the beginning of the 2018-19 season, the IceHogs have won 42 of 47 games when scoring at least three goals (42-2-1-2).
- ON BRAND: Brandon Hagel has gone 14 contests without being held pointless in back-to-back appearances. He has collected 10 points (6g, 4a) in that 14-game span and is the only rookie in the Western Conference to not go pointless in back-to-back games in that stretch.
- SIKURA SQUARED: Dylan and Tyler Sikura each tallied an assist in Tuesday's win and share the team lead with each other in scoring. They have eight goals and six assists apiece and have each assisted on two of each other's goals on the year. The duo has combined to produce 18 of Rockford's 64 goals (28%).
