GAME NOTES

- ROUGH WATERS: The IceHogs dropped both ends of a home-and-home series with Milwaukee last weekend, falling 7-4 on Jan. 24 and 5-2 on Jan. 25. The losses were the fourth and fifth straight defeats at the hands of the Admirals since Jan. 10. The IceHogs are now at risk of losing their sixth contest in a row to Milwaukee for the first time since the club dropped eight straight from March 7 - Nov. 15 of 2014.
- A TALE OF TWO SEASONS: From the IceHogs' season-opener through Dec. 20, the Hogs held a record of 17-10-0-1 and reached second place in the Central Division. However, since Dec. 21, Rockford has gone 3-13-1-1 and has fallen to a tie for sixth place in the Central.
- MAKE IT COUNT: The IceHogs sat last in the AHL with a 10.3% power play after going five games without a goal on the man-advantage from Jan. 15 - Jan. 22. However, the Hogs buried four power-play goals on twelve attempts in a home-and-home series against the Admirals from Jan. 24 - 25 and followed it up with another power-play goal on three chances last night against the Moose. Across the three games, Rockford went 5-for-15 (33.3%) with the extra man and have now jumped to 30th in the league with an 12.1% success rate on the season.
- HOT SHOT HAGEL: After weathering a six-game goalless skid from Jan. 10 - 22, Brandon Hagel has since netted two goals in the last three games, including a goal against the Admirals on Jan. 24 and a score last night against the Moose. With the tallies, Hagel has now jumped into a tie for fifth in the AHL in rookie goal-scoring with 15.
- TODAY'S PROMOTION: Sat. is Fleece Blanket Giveaway Night for the first 2,500 fans in the BMO presented by Dental Dimensions.
