GAME NOTES

HOT HOGS

The IceHogs have won seven of their last 10 games and boast points in eight of those 10 contests dating to Oct. 30. Only Tucson (8) and Milwaukee (10) have more wins over its last 10 games than Rockford. The Hogs have also not lost back-to-back games over that stretch while posting a four-game win streak from Oct. 30 - Nov. 6.

THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED

Rockford has notched points in back-to-back road games for the first time this season after finishing the weekend with a 1-0-0-1 record. Previously, the IceHogs went 2-4-0-0 over their first six road games of the year with victories against only Chicago. The last time the Hogs picked up points in three straight road contests was Feb. 2-23 of last season (win at MIL, win at GR, shootout loss at HER).

WE'RE OVER IT

The Hogs improved to 3-0 in overtime following Sunday's 3-2 OTW at the Rampage. The IceHogs set the team's AHL record for OT wins last season with a 12-4 record in such games and are now 15-4 in OT dating to the beginning of the 2018-19 season.

POWER UP

Despite ranking T-28th in the AHL in power-play percentage, the IceHogs enter Tuesday with six power-play goals over their last eight games. The Hogs scored just one power-play goal over their first nine games of the season prior to the current stretch. Six different skaters have accounted for the six power-play goals, dating to Nov. 3.

ROAD WARRIOR

Tyler Sikura scored a goal in each of the two road games this weekend and has now potted six of his eight total tallies in road games this season. He enters the week having scored 27 of his 38 career goals with Rockford in road games. That goal total includes leading the IceHogs in road goals in 2017-18, when Sikura's 18 goals on the road finished as six more than any other IceHogs skater that season.

SIK 'EM

Sikura's eight total goals on the season also exceed his entire goal production from 50 games during the 2018-19 campaign. His eight tallies since Oct. 19 are tied for sixth among all AHL skaters and are just three shy of the league lead (Daniel Carr; 11g, 16gp).

TOMMY BOY

Matt Tomkins notched his first career AHL win streak following Sunday's overtime win against the San Antonio. The netminder has turned aside 39 of 42 pucks over those two victories. He leads all rookie goaltenders in goals against average (at least two games) over those two starts, posting a 1.52 GAA with a .929 save percentage.

NO JOKE BOQ

Adam Boqvist posted back-to-back multi-point games last week with a career-high three points (3a) Saturday and two points (2a) Sunday. His five assists last week were tied for the league lead and he finished as the only rookie in the AHL to post five helpers over the week. Boqvist also shared the league lead among rookies in plus/minus with his +4 rating.

CRAM IT

Joe Cramarossa extended his point streak against the Rampage to three straight games with an assist during Sunday's OTW. Cramarossa has combined for four points with two goals and two assists in three games against San Antonio this year (includes two games while with WBS).

MCCOSHEN TO MATCH FAN DONATIONS

» Rockford IceHogs defenseman Ian McCoshen has offered to match fans' donations up to $1,500 in the fight against men's cancer for Movember/Brovember. Fans can donate on the IceHogs' GoFundMe page (link can be found on icehogs.com) and the proceeds will be combined with McCoshen's funds to benefit the local nonprofit, Brovember Inc.

» About Brovember Inc: Brovember Inc. is a non-profit organization established in Rockford by local resident and business owner, Dave Armstrong, who launched the initiative in June 2012 after one of his clients was diagnosed with prostate cancer. The IceHogs have partnered with Brovember Inc. on various initiatives over the since 2012, including the Hogs' annual Bowl-A-Thon fundraiser.
