

100 O God, Who Made the Night and Day

1. O God, Who made the night and day, Up - 2. O Lord, I trust my life to Thee Pre - hold me in Thy sight. And in the dark - est serve me in Thy care. I pledge my ser - vice, of my hours, Sur - round me with Thy hon - or, praise O'er land, on sea, in light. Be Thou my guide in ev - ery trial, Through air. This na - tion found - ed on Thy love Is long - est day and night. Then, be my strength un - far be - yond com - pare. So, I de - fend the til at last I've fought my wor - thy fight. free-dom here That in this world is rare.

3. O Christ, I'll nev - er weigh the cost Nor count the sac - ri - fice. For all that Thou has giv-en me No of - fering could suf - fice. And should the bat - tle of the day Re - quire the high - est price, I pray that Thou would wel-come me In - to Thy par-a - dise.

Text: Alexander Young, b.1976
Tune: FREEDOM'S PRICE; Alexander Young, b.1976 © 2021, International Liturgy Publications