

In God Alone

1. In God a - lone my soul does rest; His
2. To God a - lone my heart will turn, For 3. For God a - lone I live my days Trust-love I ev - er will not rest. For He a - lone re - Him the fire with which we burn. For He a - lone re - ing His watch - ful, tender gaze. He is my cham - pion ored my life, And through His suf - fering took my stored my sight, And filled the dark - ness with His and my grace on - til I've run the wor - thy strife. And from my ris - ing to my sleep, He ev - er light. And from the twi - light to the dawn, He will pro - race. And when my days of toil shall end His saints and will my safe - ty keep. My God a - lone will shep-herd tect me from all harm. My God a - lone will care for mar - tyrs He will send, That with my God shall I then me, Through all my ref - uge be.

me; He is my sanc - tu - ar - y be.
be Sing - ing to Him e - ter - nal - ly.

Text: Inspired by Psalm 124 and the writings of St. Augustine; Vince Ambrosetti, b.1956 Tune: ROSSINI, NT, 88 88; Vince Ambrosetti, b.1956 © 2017 International Liturgical Publications