

How to draw attention to your dessert plates

Use these design tips to enhance the appearance and appeal of your dessert offerings.

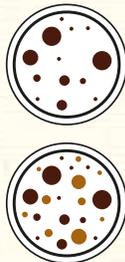

The easy way to mark up desserts.™

Buttons, Buttons

1. Randomly place different size dots of contrasting PlateScapers® toppings on white plate.

Springs and Sprinkles

1. Lay zigzag of PlateScapers® toppings on plate.
2. Rotate plate slightly and lay another zigzag over top of first.
3. Sprinkle dots of contrasting flavors in white spaces in between zigzag patterns.

Top Five Topping Tips

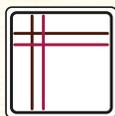

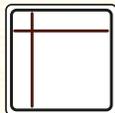

- If serving warm dessert, heat dessert first to maintain topping's consistency.
- Wipe skewers and knife tips clean after every stroke to maintain clean sharp lines.
- Make small decorative dots by touching applicator tips to plate and lightly squeezing.
- Apply light pressure for thin lines and more pressure for thicker lines.
- Use continuous, steady pressure and movement to ensure even-width lines.

Corner Cross Frame

1. Draw horizontal straight line beginning near top edge of plate and extending across plate.
2. Just below, draw similar line using different flavored PlateScapers® topping.
3. Lay two vertical lines across horizontal lines, off-center running top to bottom using same two flavors.
4. Frame desserts in plate's open space.

Lily Pad

1. Pool one PlateScapers® topping on plate to almost cover plate's surface.
2. With second PlateScapers® topping, draw two concentric circles in pool.
3. Draw skewer or knife tip through circles in alternating directions.

Circus Circles

1. Using two or three different PlateScapers® toppings, draw various size circles on white plate.

Tip: Overlap a few circles and isolate others, and create a different design every time.

Crisscross

1. Draw straight lines of PlateScapers® toppings across plate.
2. Rotate plate and draw same number of straight lines with another flavor to form grid.
3. Serve dessert over topping.
