I would like to know if the forms I filled out on December 29th went through. I jumped through all the hoops and thought everything was ok. When I received the first letter that said the forms were not received, I call the office and was told that they forms had been received. The in September the registered letter came. Since it takes a while to get the members round to sign the paper work I am now sending the forms in. Thank you for your patience. I will always mail them in form now on I will not put them on the computer.

Sincerely

Cleta Hiner-Felzien
