

Walk to Emmaus

The "Walk to Emmaus" weekend is a once-in-a-lifetime spiritual retreat that will grow your Christian walk. Emmaus focuses on the basics of Christian faith and living. Through presentations by clergy & lay leaders and through discussions with fellow retreaters, the Walk to Emmaus is a profoundly helpful means of spiritual renewal. Whether you are still questioning your faith commitment or have been active in church for many years, the Walk to Emmaus offers you to the opportunity to deepen and strengthen your faith.

54 Liberty members have participated in a Walk to Emmaus weekend (including all three pastors), and would be glad to talk with you about how Emmaus has helped them as followers of Christ:

KC & Debbie Baker, Jim & Patty Beck, Kim Betz, John & Sandy Brenner, Linda Burnworth, Denise Buyaky, Kris Davelli, Annette Diller, Kyle Doebler, Carolee Fugate, Kevin & Beth Futryk, Mark & Penny Hampshire, John & Becky Hart, Rachel Haugk, Sandi Hess, Nancy Holderman, Joyce Johnson, Bill Lewis, Jim Mohr, Steve & Lyna Norris, Marc & Mary Okin, Phil & Linda Ranck, Dave & Karen Ross, Ree Simpson, Steve & Helen Sobers, Kristopher & Tamara Steele, Barb Taylor, Colleen Teahan, Verna Tetz, George Thomas, Ted & Rosie Thompson, Sue Tucker, Wayne & Jill Wentz, Ellen Willet, Gena Williams, Chuck & Michelle Wilson, Kristine Wolfe, Tom Wood & Jeff Young

Weekends take place from Thursday evening through Sunday afternoon at Reynoldsburg United Methodist Church. The cost is $90 (Liberty can provide scholarship aid up to $45). Men's and Women's weekends are scheduled for the following dates:

2020 - Men's Walks: March 12-15
 October 8-11

Women's Walks: April 23-26
 July 23-26
 November 5-8

Please give the Walk to Emmaus retreat your prayerful consideration. If you want to deepen your faith, here's a perfect way to do it – take a Walk! Questions? Contact Pastor John