

Questions for Reflection & Discussion

1 First reflections

Start with what stayed.

- What part of Charles Mulli's story stayed with you most after the film ended?
 - After watching the film, what is one idea or question you find yourself continuing to think about?

2 One person's response

Risk and compassion.

- Esther asked Charles if it was worth giving up everything. How would you have answered her?
 - What do you think made Charles willing to take such a significant risk for children he did not know?

3 Faith and service

Faith in action.

- Where did you see faith influencing the choices Charles and Esther made throughout the story?
 - When Charles brought the children to church, they weren't welcomed. How do we, as a church, welcome those others overlook?

4 Lasting change

Beyond the moment.

- What did the film show you about the difference between helping someone in a moment of need and helping create lasting change?
 - What surprised you most about the way Mully Children's Family has grown and developed over time?

5 Your connection

Where it meets you.

- What part of MCF's work or mission connected with you most personally?
 - Did the film change the way you think about how we respond when we encounter a need?
