Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.
Psalms 107: 1 – 9 NLT

1 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good! His faithful love endures forever.

2 Has the LORD redeemed you? Then speak out! Tell others he has saved you from your enemies. 3 For he has gathered the exiles from many lands, from east and west, from north and south. 4 Some wandered in the desert, lost and homeless. 5 Hungry and thirsty, they nearly died.
6 "LORD, help!" they cried in their trouble, and he rescued (or delivered) them from their distress.

7 He led them straight to safety, to a city where they could live.

8 Let them praise the LORD for his great love and for all his wonderful deeds to them.

9 For he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.
6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

Bartemius recognized at least these three things

1. He recognized that he did not like his current situation and desired a change.

2. He understood that the change he so badly desires will take action. And lastly

3. He knew that the change to see could not be done without the help of God...
Trouble to deliverance!
