MOTHER’S DAY

Happy Mother’s Day
Encouragement to a covid-19 mother

Being a mother, is never an easy task, and has become even more complicated during the coronavirus pandemic.

You’ve got to be able to check in on them and still be able to do your job. It’s a lot.

It’s so nice to see my kids all day long. It’s lovely. But also frustrating.

When I get home, my kids have just woken up, and they’re ready for the day, but I’m not exactly ready for their day.

I can’t tell you how many times I’ve given them their iPads because I don’t care. For me, it’s about their mental health.

I gave up on being Superwoman a long time ago. I don’t do everything.

I feel like my kid has really seen who I am now and thank God she still loves me.

I think that what this pandemic has done is just created every possible emotion all at once.

We’re all giving ourselves space to not be perfect and just do the best we can.

When you feel Discouraged – Isa 40:28-31

28 Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. 29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. 30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: 31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.
