SOUTHWEST LOCATION

The Southwest submarket is comprised of office campuses nestled into the rolling landscape of the Texas Hill Country. It offers close proximity to the upscale, family-oriented neighborhoods of Westlake, Barton Creek, Rob Roy, Lost Creek, Bee Cave, Lakeway and Rollingwood – where you’ll find Austin’s elite living and playing golf. The household wealth within this submarket facilitates the growth of local, high-end retail and restaurants and the exemplary ratings of Eanes ISD and Lake Travis ISD. Similar to the Northwest submarket, technology firms such as Intel, AMD and Apple hold a strong presence in the Southwest submarket.

AMENITIES

Wild Basin Wilderness Preserve consists of 227 acres of native Texas Hill Country habitat west of Austin, Texas in West Lake Hills. Wild Basin provides habitat for the endangered Golden-cheeked warbler as well as many other native plant and wildlife species. It also contributes to clean air and water and provides a unique opportunity for people to enjoy the outdoors and learn more about nature. Wild Basin is open to visitors who can hike the 2.5 miles of trails and can visit the Wild Basin Creative Research Center. The preserve serves as a gateway to the larger Balcones Canyonlands Preserve.
