Goose Creek is a city in Berkeley County in South Carolina. Goose Creek is included in the Charleston-North Charleston-Summerville metro area. The population of the Charleston metropolitan area, comprising Berkeley, Charleston, and Dorchester Counties, was counted by the 2015 estimate at 727,689 – the 78th largest metropolitan statistical area in the United States. South Carolina is now the second most popular destination for movers in the United States, according to United Van Lines' Annual Movers Study. One economist predicts this may be part of a larger trend of people seeking locations where "housing costs are relatively lower, climates are more temperate and job growth has been at or above national average." With 90 miles of coastline, the Charleston metro certainly fits the bill, averaging 43 newcomers a day (±15,700/year).
