MORE THAN A LOFT OFFICE
Featuring 18-ft ceilings and interior mezzanines

445 W. ERIE

About.

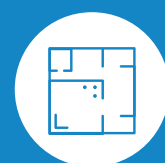

Originally built in the early 1900s, 445 W. Erie is a 53,000-SF, three-story brick-and-timber loft office building located in River North. The building's rare, heavy timber warehouse construction features 18-foot ceilings and built-out interior mezzanines. The property is truly one of a kind, exemplifying a modern vintage warehouse vibe, perfect for non-traditional office users.

Welcome to the neighborhood.

River North began as a development of factories and industrial warehouses, but later transformed into work spaces and studios for entrepreneurs and artists in the 1970s and '80s. The neighborhood is well known for its fine dining, exciting nightlife, and rich art scene. There are over over a hundred restaurants in River North, featuring all types of cuisine, plenty of upscale bars, sleek clubs, swanky lounges and over two dozen galleries. River North will give you a feeling of excitement, liveliness and freedom to be creative.
