DEVELOPMENT

Fort Worth's population continues to boom as people flock to the city, drawn by its steady economy, topnotch entertainment and easy going lifestyle. This recent growth has prompted the City of Fort Worth to pursue new approaches in handling major population surges.

Piloted by the Trinity River Vision Authority (TRVA), the Trinity River Vision (TRV) is a master plan for sustainable redevelopment of Fort Worth's downtown core surrounding the Trinity River. Now in progress, the most well-known of the Trinity River Vision projects is that which will transform a once-neglected and under-used section of the Trinity River into an urban riverfront community: The Panther Island Plan. In creating a waterfront neighborhood just north of downtown Fort Worth, the Panther Island Plan will effectively be doubling the size of the downtown area, consequently generating more than $600 million in economic development activity solely in the first decade alone.

Panther Island is the largest mixed-use development in Fort Worth, opening up for the development of 800 acres connecting downtown, the cultural district and the stockyards as well as creating twelve miles of urban waterfront development potential. An inspired collection of area requirements, such as smarter zoning, will encourage sustainable central city development of over three million square feet of commercial space and 10,000 mixed-income households.

MAGNOLIA AVENUE

On the southside of Fort Worth is a hipster enclave called Magnolia that's become one of the busiest pockets of the city. The streets here are lined with eccentric bars, coffee shops, vegan diners and B-Cycle stations — a citywide bike-share program. It's a newer neighborhood — still gentrifying, still up-and-coming, with chic hot spots thriving inside decades old buildings. The result: a funky-chic neighborhood where the antique meets the modern.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
