The Coutura Design Inspiration center is centrally located in Colorado Springs along the I-25 corridor. The property offers a unique opportunity for an owner/investor to be a part of a high end design center with a fantastic mix of builders, designers, and suppliers. The builders spared no expense when building the property and showcases materials and quality that is offered from each group in the property. The property consists of a mix of showroom space, warehouse and office and would lend itself to a wide variety and flexibility for other uses.
