Radcliff Defense Contractor To Create Over 75 New Jobs In Support Of Fort Knox Missions

Source: The Lane Report

RADCLIFF, Ky. – North South Consulting Group (NSCG) is creating at least 75 new local jobs in conjunction with contracts the company recently won in support of missions at Fort Knox, adding nearly $4 million in annual payroll to the regional economy. Radcliff Mayor JJ Duvall called the announcement welcome news in these challenging economic times and further proof of the important role Fort Knox has in the resiliency of our regional economy. “We are proud of our home-grown defense contractor. North South Consulting Group is providing good-paying jobs and added spending power to a region that is fighting hard to weather this economic storm created by COVID-19,” Duvall said. “This is yet another example of the critical role Fort Knox has in our regional economy.”

U.S. Army Reactivates High-Level Command At Fort Knox

FORT KNOX, Ky. — Nearly a century of history is coming back after seven years.

What You Need To Know

- U.S. Army V Corp reactivated at Fort Knox
- V Corps was established in 1918 and deactivated in 2013
- V Corps will bring in $58 million in payroll and $96 million for the local economy
- V Corps will be fully operational October, 2021

The U.S. Army V Corps (pronounced "fifth corps") reactivated Friday at its new home at Fort Knox.

The command post is the Army corps' fourth headquarters and U.S. Army Forces Command commanding Gen. Michael Garrett says it will help U.S. missions abroad.

"V Corps will fill a critical gap, synchronizing U.S. Army, allied and partner-nation tactical formations throughout Europe," Garrett said.

V Corps was established back in 1918, helping the U.S. get through both World Wars, the Cold War, and more recent conflicts in the Middle East. It was deactivated in 2013.

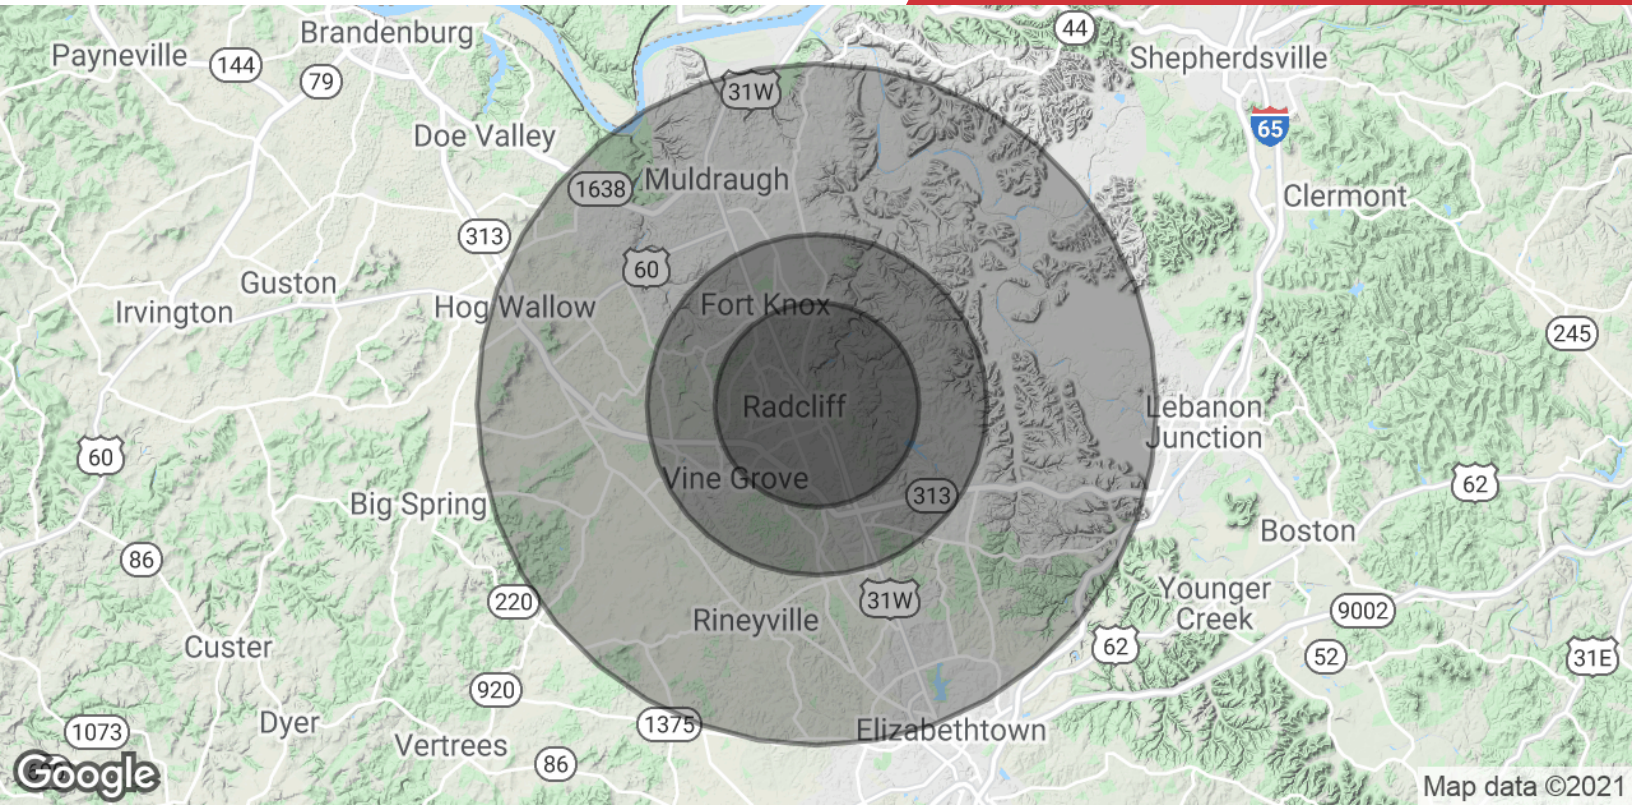

"Today, we begin a new chapter in the celebrated history of this command," McConnell said.

Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, R-Kentucky, said he's honored Kentucky will house the V Corps.

"It will enable greater contributions by our NATO allies to promote security and stability on the front lines of a renewed competition with Russia," McConnell said.

V Corps commander Lt. Gen. John Kolasheski said the Army goes through a rigorous process figuring out where to station troops and Fort Knox stood out.

"I think Fort Knox has a lot of the attributes that are necessary to house a headquarters for this type and allows us to project forces to Europe," Kolasheski said.
