WALLER, TEXAS

The City of Waller, northwest of downtown Houston, offers a combination of quaint rural living with a bustling commerce that continues to grow and develop the region into one of the most economically stable areas in the Greater Houston MSA.

Waller is close enough to its "big city" neighbor, Houston, but far enough away to provide residents with the safety and friendliness of a smaller town.

Waller Corner

± 7.8 Acres on the Corner of FM 2920 and
Hempstead Highway

• BUSINESS GROWTH

The Waller area is quickly emerging as a strategic central point of commerce. An active distribution network recently surfaced with the addition of the Goodman Manufacturing Plant, the 2nd largest US industrial building, among other new business parks and light industrial developments. Additionally, Waller is within a 15-minute drive to Grand Parkway and Highway 290, a 30-minute drive to The Woodlands and Energy Corridor, and

• QUALITY OF LIFE

Despite recent dramatic increases in population and business activity, the area retains its appeal of country living that urban dwellers from other metro areas gravitate towards. Residents and visitors to Waller can enjoy family and recreational opportunities such as cycling, golfing, hunting, as well as a selection of planned annual events. 290, a 30-minute drive to The Woodlands and Energy Corridor, and a 45-minute drive to the Galleria and downtown Houston. With competitive cost advantages, Waller offers investors the confidence to invest and access international and domestic markets.

• WORK FORCE & EDUCATION

Abundant resources for workforce training and a pool of skilled workers can be sourced from several educational institutions, including Texas A&M University, University of Houston, Prairie View A&M University, Texas State Technical College, Lone Star College, and Blinn College. These institutions offer students a wide selection of liberal arts curriculum, as well as vocational, customized programs relevant to nearby industry.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
