LOCATION OVERVIEW

Located just west of Highway 65 NE and north of Mississippi St NE in a dense residential area close to Meadowlands Park.

CHURCH HISTORY

In 1966, the founding members of MSUS purchased a small church at East River Road and Mississippi Street in Fridley. Four years later, in 1970, the land where the church now stands was acquired. The fellowship hall was constructed and the original sanctuary was moved from the East River Road site and became the second story of the church. In the fall of 1990, the sanctuary was moved to the ground level and enlarged to seat more than 100. A lobby was built on to connect the sanctuary to the original fellowship hall. A second story, built atop the fellowship hall, was added to house classrooms, a multi-purpose library/meeting room, and offices.
