

Mr. Campbell is born in Nashville, Tennessee to James Carl and Maude Logue Campbell.

Mr. Campbell becomes a reporter for The Knoxville Journal.

Mr. Campbell receives a Bachelor of Science from the University of Tennessee.

Mr. Campbell becomes an intelligence officer at Air University.

Mr. Campbell becomes a captain in the U.S. Air Force.

Mr. Campbell becomes a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Air Force.

Mr. Campbell becomes a newspaper reporter at The Nashville Banner.

Mr. Campbell becomes a public relations executive at Metcalfe Public Relations in Nashville, Tennessee.

Mr. Campbell becomes the editor of Nashville Magazine.

Mr. Campbell becomes an advertising copywriter at Noble-Dury and Associates.

1925

1947

1949

1951

1952

1953

1954

1961

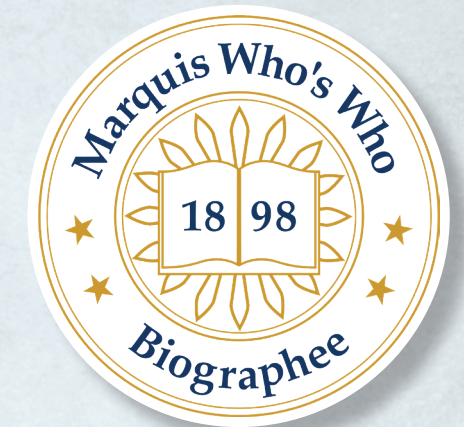

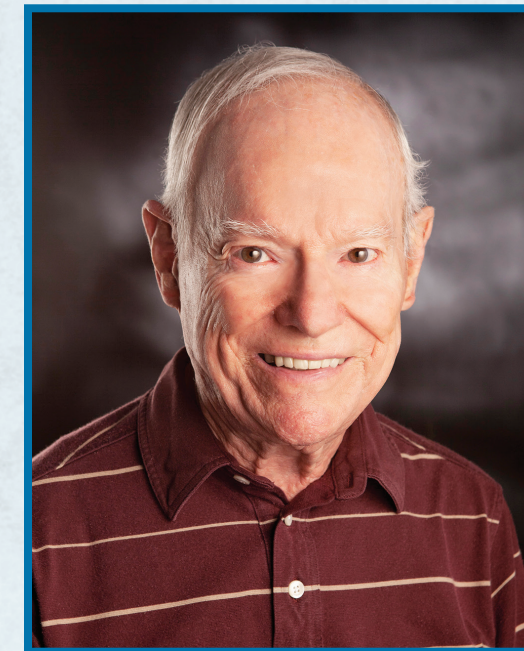

1963

1969

CHESTER D. CAMPBELL

Underwriter
(Retired)

A timeline of professional milestones

1971

1975

1980

1983

1992

1995

2002

2003

2009

2017

Mr. Campbell becomes the executive vice president of the Tennessee Association of Life Underwriters.

Mr. Campbell becomes a certified association executive through the American Society of Association Executives.

Mr. Campbell serves on the association executives advisory council of the National Association of Life Underwriters in Washington, DC.

Mr. Campbell serves as secretary and vice president of the Tennessee Society of Association Executives.

Mr. Campbell joins the administrative board of the City Road Chapel United Methodist Church in Madison, Tennessee.

Mr. Campbell becomes the church historian at City Road Chapel United Methodist Church.

Mr. Campbell authors the book, "Secret of the Scroll."

Mr. Campbell receives the Bloody Dagger Award.

Mr. Campbell receives the Silver Falchion Award.

Mr. Campbell authors the book, "Everything But the Kitchen Sink."