

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens is born in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Robert Kinsey and Elizabeth Anne Pillsbury.

1949

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens receives an Associate of Arts from Stephens College.

1971

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens becomes a layout artist for the Monterey County Herald in California.

1973

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens serves as a teacher's aide for special education and a substitute teacher in the Pacific Grove Unified School District.

1978

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens receives a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the University of California, Santa Cruz.

1980

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens becomes an art educator at Shattuck-St. Mary's School in Faribault, Minnesota.

1982

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens becomes an elementary school teacher at Woods Academy in Maple Plain, Minnesota and begins exhibiting in group shows with the Grant Marais Art Colony.

1986

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens serves as an elementary school art teacher and an art consultant at Anoka-Hennepin Schools.

1987

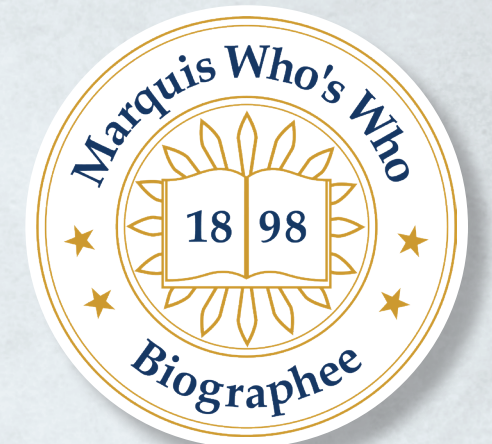

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens marries David Inesis Gredzens.

1989

Sandi M. Pillsbury-Gredzens

Sole Proprietor | Art Educator
www.sandipillsbury.com

A timeline of professional milestones

1995

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens receives a Master of Education from Hamline University and participates in the "Sally Brown Collaborative Art Exhibition."

1996

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens participates in the "Itasca Art Association Exhibition."

1997

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens serves as an art teacher and community educator at Lake Superior School District #381 in Two Harbors, Minnesota.

2000

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens exhibits her work at the Union Street Gallery in Chicago Heights, Illinois.

2002

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens exhibits her work at the Lake County Courthouse Atrium and at the Duluth Art Institute in Duluth, Minnesota.

2003

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens exhibits her work at Vanilla Bean Bakery and Café.

2004

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens exhibits her work at the Schroeder Area Historical Society Cross River Heritage Center and at the Johnson Heritage Post in Grand Marais, Minnesota.

2015

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens has a show at the Agora Gallery in the Chelsea Art district in New York.

2017

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens serves as a curator and guest artist for the Lake Superior 20/20 Studio Art Tour.

2018

Ms. Pillsbury-Gredzens participates in an expressive realism group show in Aitkin, Minnesota.