

Mr. Seymour is born in Scranton, Pennsylvania to Alfred Harry and Elizabeth Catherine Seymour.

Mr. Seymour studies at the University of Scranton.

Mr. Seymour receives a Bachelor of Civil Engineer from The Pennsylvania State University.

Mr. Seymour becomes the design leader at Swindell-Dressler in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Seymour becomes the assistant office manager at Swindell-Dressler in Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. Seymour becomes a sales engineer at H.H. Robertson in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Seymour studies postgraduate courses at the University of Delaware and is appointed executive vice president of L.H. Doana Associates in Wilmington, Delaware.

Mr. Seymour authors "Computer Software Water Distribution."

Mr. Seymour authors "Sewer Flow Computerized."

1942

1961

1964

1966

1968

1969

1972

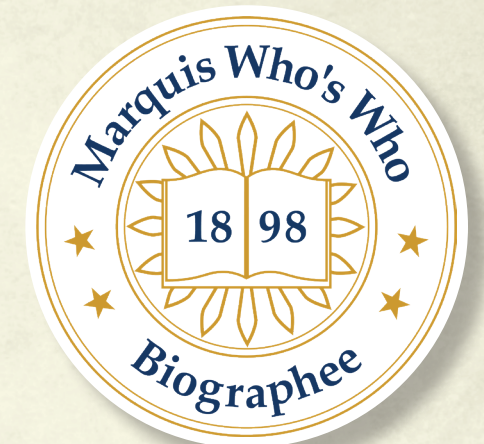

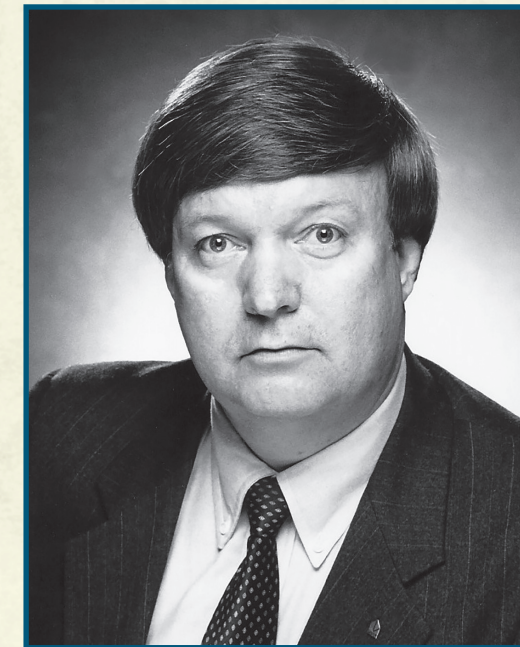

1973

1975

A. Barry Seymour

Civil Engineer

A timeline of professional milestones

1976

1977

1979

1980

1985

1986

1987

1991

1995

Mr. Seymour is appointed president of the Wilmington chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Mr. Seymour joins Governor Dupont's Science and Technology Commission in Dover, Delaware.

Mr. Seymour becomes senior project manager at Stanley Consultant in Muscatine, Iowa.

Mr. Seymour is appointed senior vice president of Snell Environmental Group in Michigan.

Mr. Seymour is appointed senior vice president and partner at Camp Dresser & McKee in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Seymour joins the New Leaders Committee of the Michigan Consultant Engineers Council.

Mr. Seymour joins the board of directors of the Detroit chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers (MSPE).

Mr. Seymour becomes senior area officer at Camp Dresser & McKee in Detroit.

Mr. Seymour becomes profit and loss registered manager and general partner of the Northeast United States at Black and Veatch in Detroit.