

Dr. St. Pierre is born in Buffalo, New York to Guy Thomas St. Pierre and Madeline St. Pierre.

Dr. St. Pierre receives a Bachelor of Science in Art Education from the New York State University College at Buffalo.

Dr. St. Pierre becomes a kindergarten through 12th grade art teacher in Kenmore-Tonawanda Union Free School District.

Dr. St. Pierre receives a Master of Science in Art Education from the New York State University College at Buffalo.

Dr. St. Pierre serves as an illustrator for the Journal Italian Americana sponsored by the University of Buffalo and Queens College in Flushing, New York.

Dr. St. Pierre becomes a cooperating teacher for art student teachers at the Buffalo State College.

Dr. St. Pierre receives a Master of Arts in Italian from Middlebury College.

Dr. St. Pierre designs the New York State Holiday Greeting Card for the American Lung Association.

Dr. St. Pierre serves as a Graduate Assistant in the Office of Research and Development at New York University.

1945

1967

1967

1970

1971

1972

1976

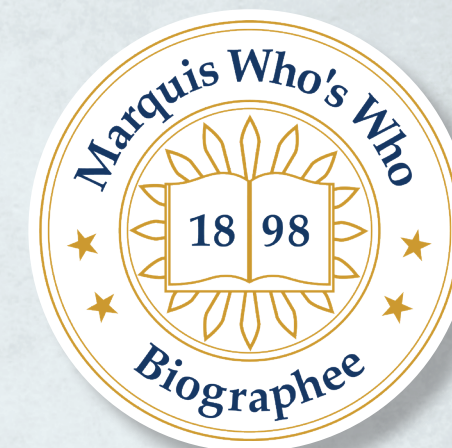

1978

1987

Cherie St. Pierre, PhD, MA, MS, BS

Art Educator (Retired)

A timeline of professional milestones

1990

1992

1998

1999

2000

2001

2002

2017

2017

Dr. St. Pierre becomes a multimedia production advisor for the New York State Council for the Arts in Tonawanda, New York.

Dr. St. Pierre receives a Doctor of Philosophy in Communication and Culture in the English Department from New York University.

Dr. St. Pierre serves as State Secretary of the New York State Art Teachers Association.

Dr. St. Pierre becomes an adjunct professor at the Graduate School at Medaille College.

Dr. St. Pierre becomes a senior partner of the New York State Academy of Teaching and Learning and serves as a college supervisor for student teachers at Buffalo State College.

Dr. St. Pierre receives the Outstanding Service Award from the New York State Art Teachers Association.

Dr. St. Pierre is featured in "The Flower Teachers: Stories for a New Generation" by Candace Jesse Stout.

Dr. St. Pierre is appointed to the Photographic Society of America's (PSA) Greenwood Scholarship Committee for university students pursuing a photography degree.

Dr. St. Pierre is featured on the PSA cover of the February 2017 Journal including an article on Wildlife in Hokkaido, Japan.