

Your Dad's Pardon III
God has already forgotten all of your sins
Hebrews 10:17
Pastor Kurt

I will never again remember their sins and lawless deeds. (Heb 10:17)

Primary Point: Many popular teachings about the Christian's sin are not true because God has not only forgiven all of them, but He has already forgotten all of your sins.

1) Can my sin separate me from God?

Isa 59:2; Rom 8:39

2) Do I need to confess my sins to be forgiven?

1 John 1:9; Matt 3:6; 1 Tim 6:12

3) Am I supposed to feel guilty about my sin?

Rom 8:1; Heb 9:14; 4:16

4) Do I need to properly recognize my sin before communion?

1 Cor 11:27-29; 2 Cor 13:5

- 1) What was especially meaningful to you in Sunday's message?
- 2) Does your sin separate you from God? Why not?
- 3) Do you need to confess your sins to be forgiven of them? Why not?
- 4) Do I need to properly recognize my sin before communion? What is Paul talking about in this passage?
- 5) How would these false teachings affect your relationship with God?
- 6) Have you suffered from some of them?
