Psalms 26:8 I love the house where you live, O Lord, the place where Your glory dwells.

Ephesians 2:19-22 Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the chief cornerstone. In Him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. And in Him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by His Spirit.

Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

Questions for reflection and discussion

- To what extent do you love the house where God lives (the church)?
- How would you define the breadth of your spiritual family?
- How is God using you as a piece of His dwelling?
- To what distance has your witness for God travelled?
