

The Irony of the Great Commission

Primary Point – God gives us an impossible task in order to prove His love for us.

Primary Text – Matthew 28:18-20 – Therefore Go, make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you, and surely, I am with you always, even to the very end of the age.

- 1.) I command you to do something you can't do.

- 2.) I command you to do something and will you not to.

- 3.) The command to fish, is actually a command to be caught.

Discussion Questions:

- 1.) What was most meaningful to you about this message?
- 2.) How does knowing you can't convert someone free you to share the gospel?
- 3.) How does an impossible task prove God's love for us?
- 4.) What do you appreciate most about the prophet Jeremiah?
