

How Social is the Gospel? - part 2

(Un-presumptive Kindness)

Pastor Ben Hunt – June 21, 2020

Primary Point: The Holy Spirit is always working through your kindness.

Texts: Acts 7:54-60; Luke 15:11-32; Luke 10:25-37; James 4:6; Matthew 7:6; 2 Thessalonians 3:10; Matthew 5:11; 2 Timothy 3:12; John 15:18; Mark 13:9; Hebrews 11:32-38

1. When you are reviled, the Holy Spirit is working.

2. When you are received, the Holy Spirit is working.

3. Don't worry about the results. Love always. Trust God.

Application Questions:

1. What was most meaningful about today's message. Why?
2. How have you been presumptive in your kindness? How and why?
3. When should you "not pursue" like the Father in the Prodigal Son parable?
4. What is something new you saw in the parable of the Good Samaritan?
5. If a person reviles you, how many "chances" do you give them? Why?
 - a. (please be careful with each other's consciences here)
6. Give as many reasons as you can that enabled Stephen to do what he did.
