1 Timothy 1:18-19

1 Tim 1:18-19

This command I entrust to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you fight the good fight, keeping faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith.

Primary Point

By the knowledge and power of God's Word, fight the most important fight!

What would you share with your son if your days were numbered?

(The basis of the letters to Timothy)

What does it mean to fight the good fight?

A shipwrecked faith

Discussion

1. Who is your spiritual dad, mom, brother, sister, child? Are you either actively or passively growing that relationship?
2. How can we be more focused on "THE FIGHT" and not distracted from the "the fights."
3. What do you do when your ship is headed for the rocky shore?
4. Do you treat Scripture as a "command entrusted to you?"
