Margaret M. Calderwood

First Assistant Prosecutor

Mark Castellano

Acting Chief of Detectives

Morris County Prosecutor Robert Carroll, Morris County First Assistant Prosecutor Maggie Calderwood, and Morris County Prosecutor's Office Acting Chief of Detectives Mark Castellano announce the indictment of Christopher H. Kascik, age 53, of Kingwood Township,

On September 17, 2026, a Hunterdon County grand jury returned a five-count indictment charging Kascik with one count of second-degree Sexual Assault, one count of third-degree Endangering the Welfare of a Child – Sexual Conduct, one count of third-degree Endangering the Welfare of a Child – Abuse, and two counts of fourth-degree Criminal Sexual Contact.

Kascik was initially charged on a warrant-complaint on April 23, 2025.

It is alleged that Kascik provided a 13-year-old juvenile female with alcoholic beverages at his Kingwood Township residence on March 29, 2025, which led to the victim becoming intoxicated. It is further alleged that Kascik sexually assaulted the victim while she was intoxicated.

At the time of the arrest, Kascik was a civilian employee of the Hunterdon County Sheriff's Office. The Morris County Prosecutor's Office was designated to prosecute this case in the Hunterdon Vicinage of the Superior Court.

Prosecutor Carroll would like to acknowledge the Morris County Prosecutor's Office Sex Crimes/Child Endangerment Unit and the New Jersey State Police for their efforts in this investigation.

A criminal complaint is merely an accusation. Despite this accusation, this defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
