Inspired: Slaying Giants, Walking on Water and Loving Bible Again

Rachel Held

If the Bible isn't a science book or an instruction manual, then what is it? What do people mean when they say the Bible is inspired? When Rachel Held Evans found herself asking these questions, she began a quest to better understand what the Bible is and how it is meant to be read. What she discovered changed her-and it will change you too.

Drawing on the best in recent scholarship and using her well-honed

"Empowered and guided by the Holy Spirit through Scripture, our confessions, and conscience the Presbytery of Lake Erie journeys with congregations, ruling elders and teaching elders as we live, grow, fellowship and witness to the work of God through Jesus Christ in today's changing world. Recognizing that we are called to serve all of God's children, we do this through shared prayer, worship, training, evangelism, and mission to strengthen the dynamic Body of Christ."

literary expertise, Evans examines some of our favorite Bible stories and possible interpretations, retelling them through memoir, original poetry, short stories, soliloquies, and even a short screenplay. Undaunted by the Bible's most difficult passages, Evans wrestles through the process of doubting, imagining, and debating Scripture's mysteries. The Bible, she discovers, is not a static work but is a living, breathing, captivating, and confounding book that is able to equip us to join God's loving and redemptive work in the world.

Good news from the Board of Pensions

At the mid-March meeting of the Board of Pensions it was announced that an experience apportionment of 3.6% was approved for all Honorably Retired pastors. And the same amount of money was added to the pension credits of those who are currently serving as pastors. This aids in supporting the retirement income of those who have served in the church under Board of Pension coverage.

More Good Financial News from the Court System

A case has been weaving its way through the court system on whether the tax benefit of a housing allowance or manse should be continued for religious leaders. A recent court decision continues this tax benefit – which helps churches stretch their dollars a bit further. This is good news for the churches of Lake Erie Presbytery – and far beyond.

*Prayer Concerns

- Let us take a moment to pray for peace on earth. So many hearts and homes, communities and countries are in need of God's Peace.
- Pray for the continuing conversations around racism and violence that the power of God might be brought to these difficult conversations.

Pray for wisdom to engage radical missional thought in each of our communities. The time to act for the Kingdom of God is NOW!

*In Memory:

- Maria 'Happy' Haas Snively, mother of Rev. Jim Haas, [passed away on January 30. She had just recently celebrated her 100th birthday. Please pray for the Haas family.

ends June 30, 2019. Unless something changes by then, this will create disruption for many residents, and in particular PCUSA pastors and staff members who work at PCUSA employers who are covered by Blue Cross Blue Shield. By now you should have received a communication from the Board of Pensions about these significant changes. If not, please contact the presbytery office for a copy of that communication. In addition there will be an information session held on April 9th from 10:30 – noon at the Pittsburgh Presbytery Center 901 Allegheny Ave, Pittsburgh. You are encouraged to attend, or access the information afterwards, for further insight. Your inattention to this conversation could have significant negative impact on your finances if you are not prepared for it.
