Didn't See it Coming

Nieuwhof, Carey
Sub-title: Overcoming the 7 Greatest Challenges That No One Expects and Everyone Experiences

Learn how to overcome life's unexpected obstacles! Nieuwhof provides tools and guidelines to help you anticipate and avoid seven crippling challenges---cynicism, compromise,

"Empowered and guided by the Holy Spirit through Scripture, our confessions, and conscience the Presbytery of Lake Erie journeys with congregations, ruling elders and teaching elders as we live, grow, fellowship and witness to the work of God through Jesus Christ in today's changing world. Recognizing that we are called to serve all of God's children, we do this through shared prayer, worship, training, evangelism, and mission to strengthen the dynamic Body of Christ."

*Graduates among our Pastor's Families

It is the season for graduations! Within the families of the pastors of the Presbytery of Lake Erie there are several graduations:

- Ben Gillispie, son of Rev. Greg (Edinboro Church) and Marcia Gillispie, graduates this spring from Venango Catholic High School. He plans to pursue further education at Cleveland State University in the fall.
- Emma Weichman, daughter of Rev. Chris (First Covenant, Erie) and Karen Weichman, graduates this spring from Fairview High School. She plans to attend Grove City College in the fall.
- Abigail Rose Kaye, daughter of Commissioned Pastor Tina (Utica) and Trevor Kaye, will be graduating from Saegertown High School. Her future plans are to pursue a degree in nursing.
- Emma Haas, daughter of Rev. Jim (Honorably Retired) and Karen Haas, will graduate in early May from Ohio State University with a Doctorate of Occupational Therapy. She is in the process of applying for a position at various hospitals in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Congratulations to these graduates! Job well done!! Extend your congratulations to the parents as well when you next see them! And if there are any graduates in pastor's families that have been inadvertently omitted, please contact the presbytery office so that they might be added to the list.

Project on Rural Ministry

If you are serving a rural or small town church in western Pennsylvania, northern West Virginia, eastern Ohio, or southwestern New York, then you may be eligible to participate in The Project on Rural Ministry. This is a five-year initiative that is FREE and is designed to support pastors in the ministry they are already doing. Participating pastors will benefit from a fully funded student internship, a service-learning project suited to each pastor's local context, engagement in an online networking community, fellowship with other rural and small town pastors, a chance to interact with experts in fields like ministry, social work, and entrepreneurship, and more! Click Here for more information.

Do You Know What Benefits Your Pastor & Staff Need?

The BOARD OF PENSIONS is offering a BENEFITS CONNECTIONS event to help churches align benefits and values to the needs of their pastors and other staff. The 2019 Benefits Connections will be held on Thursday, May 2, from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM in the Knox Room at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. Those who attend will learn about the latest changes to the benefit plan, the theology that shapes the plan, understanding of how the plan can be used and accessed, latest programs, and more. Register online at www.pensions.org/benefitsconnections. Registration Deadline is April 12th!

for prayers lifted on his behalf. He has recovered from his injuries that occurred on the way to his visa interview last month. Paul was able to reschedule the visa interview to April 17, 8 am. Please join in praying for Paul as he travels again and goes through the interview process. Paul is the chief medical assistant at the Wapuli Health Clinic in Ghana.

- Let us take a moment to pray for peace on earth. So many hearts and homes, communities and countries are in need of God's Peace.
- Pray for the continuing conversations around racism and violence that the power of God might be brought to these difficult conversations.

Pray for wisdom to engage radical missional thought in each of our communities. The time to act for the Kingdom of God is NOW!

*In Memory:

- Rev. Lori Danielson recently experienced the sadness of the death of her sister Ruth. Rev. Danielson previously served the Emlenton Church. Her sister Ruth had been living with Lori at the time of her death. You are invited to extend sympathy to Lori at: First Presbyterian Church, 52 Washington Street, Rouses Point, NY 12979.

Book of Confession pre order

The Presbytery is looking to make a large order of the Book of Confessions. It includes the text of twelve confessional documents, including the Confession of Belhar. The cost will be $10; we can save you shipping. Please let Melinda in the office know by May 1st if you would like to place an order, adminasst@pbylakeerie.org

Good news from the Board of Pensions

At the mid-March meeting of the Board of Pensions it was announced that an experience apportionment of 3.6% was approved for all Honorably Retired pastors. And the same amount of money was added to the pension credits of those who are currently serving as pastors. This aids in supporting the retirement income of those who have served in the church under Board of Pension coverage.

More Good Financial News from the Court System

A case has been weaving its way through the court system on whether the tax benefit of a housing allowance or manse should be continued for religious leaders. A recent court decision continues this tax benefit – which helps churches stretch their dollars a bit further. This is good news for the churches of Lake Erie Presbytery – and far beyond.

Future Church Symposium with Dr. Leonard Sweet

Pastor Jordan Rimmer and Northminster Presbyterian Church are excited to announce the first ever Future Church Symposium. Spend a day with author, teacher, and futurist Leonard Sweet and consider where the culture is going and what the church of the future needs to look like. This takes place Saturday, April 27th from 9am-4pm at 2434 Wilmington Rd. New Castle, PA 16105. Cost is $35 and lunch is included. Westminster College has agreed to sponsor $10 of every participant who signs up from the Synod of the Trinity! Just type in the promo code `ilovewestminster` (one word, no spaces, all lowercase) and get the event with lunch for only $25. Click Here to register.

Labor of Love

To commemorate the 50th Anniversary in 2019 of medical missions and service, Chosen is partnering with the Presbytery of Lake Erie and the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Ghana in a new endeavor called "Labors of Love". The goal of "Labors of Love" is to raise $50,000 that will be invested in the three Health Clinics to increase and improve healthcare services to the women, children, and communities that they serve. Each of the Health Clinics has specific needs for getting to the next level of development. These include building construction, renovations, equipment, supplies, infrastructure, potable water, sanitation, staff training and support. Click here for more information.
