990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section A, Line 1	Although Exeter Health Resources, Inc does not name specific supported organizations in its governing documents, its mission is "to improve the health of the community principally accomplished without compromising the Corporation's sustainability by supporting the provision of health services and information to the community by the affiliated companies of the Corporation." Additionally, the organization's confirmation of determination letter from the IRS states, "up to June 1, 1985, you operated the Exeter Hospital. However, as a result of the reorganization of the Exeter Hospital on June 1, 1985, new Exeter Hospital, Inc took over the patient care activities and you became the fundraising and coordinating organization within the health care system." By virtue of these facts, and of its shared leadership with Exeter Hospital, Inc, Core Physicians, LLC, and Rockingham VNA and Hospice, Exeter Health Resources, Inc has a continuous and historic relationship with all three of its supported organizations.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The goal of the Permanent Endowment Fund is to provide a source of financial support to Exeter's patient care activities. These funds are invested in a prudent manner with regard to preserving principal while providing reasonable returns. These returns are then used for capital expenditures, other major program needs, and to generally increase the financial strength of the organization. The quasi-endowments are funds which have been donated to the organization for a purpose specified by the donor. These funds are held until used for the purpose intended by the donor.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Resources, the Hospital, RVNA&amp;H, Core and Matrix (inactive) are not-for-profit organizations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code), and are exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. Med Real is a not-for-profit organization as described in Section 501(c)(25) of the Code and is exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. Management evaluated the tax positions of these entities and has concluded that they have maintained their tax-exempt status, do not have any significant unrelated business income, and have taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the consolidated financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	All requests for grants/contributions/sponsorships over $5,000 require the approval of at least the Vice President of Strategy, Community Relations and Advancement to ensure that they are consistent with our mission, values and strategic plan. Larger grants are also reviewed by the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Executive Officer prior to approval. Each of those requesting organizations either provides a written summary of how they have used our previous support as well as their specific plans for any new requested funding or they make a presentation in person, usually to the Chief Financial Officer, the Chief Executive Officer and the Vice President of Strategy, Community Relations and Advancement. Each year a subcommittee of Exeter Health Resources, Inc.'s Board of Trustees is charged with overseeing our Community Benefits program and our community needs assessment and reviews a detailed report on the previous year's grants/contributions/sponsorships and approves the current year's plan for community support. That subcommittee and the larger Exeter Health Resources, Inc.'s Board of Trustees are regularly updated on our community support initiatives.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The Form 990 is prepared by an outside tax accountant with information provided by the organization. The Form 990 is reviewed by the organization's Treasurer and then presented to the Board of Trustees before it is filed with the IRS.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Board of Trustees has adopted a Conflict of Interest Policy that requires the disclosure of conflicts of interest either when the interest becomes a matter of possible action by the Board or during an annual disclosure process. Trustees, officers, and key employees, as well as all members of senior management, are part of the annual disclosure process, which is initiated by the issuance of a memorandum and accompanying questionnaire by the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO). All disclosures are reviewed. Any trustee with a conflict of interest is required to abstain from voting and is not included in a quorum determination on the matter and any officer, key employee, or member of senior management with a conflict does not take part in making and is not present for any decision regarding the matter. The policy is monitored and enforced by both the President and CEO and the full Board. A separate organizational policy requires all employees to disclose any conflict of interest in writing upon hire. Thereafter, on an annual basis, staff within Human Resources will survey all employees and contracted staff serving in a managerial role as well as all members of any committees that make recommendations or decisions regarding the purchase of goods or services by Exeter Health Resources, Inc. as a means to ensure that any conflict of interest, conflict of commitment and/or personal interest is disclosed and appropriately managed. Employees otherwise are required to make any further written disclosure at the time a conflict arises. This policy is monitored and enforced by the Vice President of Human Resources and the Vice President of Corporate Integrity and Compliance. Any identified conflict of interest is managed by disclosure, recusal, or divestiture of the interest.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The organization has a formal process for determining total compensation for the CEO and other listed officers that is intended to provide reasonable compensation for achieving the organization's mission to recognize individual and team performance, and to comply with the organization's obligations as a tax-exempt charitable organization. The Executive Committee of the organization's Board of Trustees conducts an annual review of the compensation of the CEO and other listed officers. In doing so, the Committee retains a qualified independent compensation consultant to conduct competitive market analysis of the market ranges of base, incentive and total cash compensation, and to provide advice concerning the reasonableness of the compensation of the CEO and other listed officers. The Committee utilizes that analysis and other appropriate information in connection with its annual review and makes recommendations to the full Board for adjustment of the CEO's compensation and the compensation for other listed officers. Information which the Committee may consider can include but is not limited to the performance of an individual and/or that individual's contributions to a team, the performance of the organization in whole and in part, the elements of total compensation and salary history, the organization's compensation targets and comparability data, including the data prepared by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Committee. The Committee incorporates a performance appraisal process in the CEO's and the listed officers' compensation review. The CEO and other listed officers are not present when the Committee discusses their respective compensation. In addition, the Committee determines if the threshold requirements for incentive awards are met, consisting of the organization's performance results for quality, operating system excellence and financial performance. The results of the Committee's deliberations are presented to the Board and include recommendations concerning salary range adjustments and incentive awards and the basis for the Committee's decisions/recommendations. The deliberations of the Board are conducted in executive session with the independent members of the Board but do include the CEO only for that period of time in which the Board has questions concerning the performance of any listed officer other than the CEO. The Board reviews the CEO's performance and determines if the adjustments and awards recommended by the Committee for the CEO are in the organization's best interest and for its benefit. For the other listed officer positions, adjustments and incentive awards are approved upon recommendation of the CEO by the Executive Committee within Board approved parameters and ratified by the Board of Trustees.
