Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	The President of Exeter Med Real, Inc. is compensated by a related organization, Exeter Health Resources, Inc. Exeter Health Resources, Inc. uses a compensation committee, an independent compensation consultant, a compensation survey and approval by the Board or compensation committee.
Part I, Line 4b	The organization's parent (Exeter Health Resources, Inc.) maintains a split-dollar supplemental retirement plan for two executives (listed below with amounts) selected by the Exeter Health Resources Board of Trustees. The plan is closed to future participants. The Plan provides for annual payments of premiums for life insurance policies insuring the listed individuals. Those life insurance premiums are collaterally assigned to the corporation and any excess accumulated value in the policies (net of accumulated premium payments which are returned to the organization upon the executive attaining the age of 70 or at the death of the participant) is available to be paid to the participant once vested at age 62 and upon retirement from the organization. Note that the split-dollar arrangement is part of an employee benefit program and economically not a direct extension of credit. Furthermore, the reportable compensation of the respective employees includes the annual value of the life insurance provided. Life insurance premium payments during tax year: Kevin J. Callahan $511,929; Kevin J. O'Leary $207,146. Excess Accumulated Value: Kevin J. Callahan $2,854,995; Kevin J. O'Leary $1,172,545. Certain of the listed employees participate in a nonqualified deferred compensation plan as described in Internal Revenue Code Section 457(f) sponsored by Exeter Health Resources, Inc. In the calendar year ended December 31, 2017, the contribution to the plan for the non-vested benefit of Kevin J. O'Leary was $68,000. The contribution is intended to provide a forfeitable supplemental retirement benefit. Participants in the 457(f) plan do not vest until age 62 when it is payable to the participant.
Schedule J, Part II	Kevin J. Callahan and Kevin J. O'Leary, who serve as officers of Exeter Med Real, Inc. are compensated by a related organization, Exeter Health Resources, Inc. Their total compensation is based on their roles as CEO and CFO, respectively, of the consolidated Exeter Health Resources, Inc. system.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Board of Trustees has adopted a Conflict of Interest Policy that requires the disclosure of conflicts of interest either when the interest becomes a matter of possible action by the Board or during an annual disclosure process. Trustees, officers, and key employees, as well as all members of senior management, are part of the annual disclosure process, which is initiated by the issuance of a memorandum and accompanying questionnaire by the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO). All disclosures are reviewed. Any trustee with a conflict of interest is required to abstain from voting and is not included in a quorum determination on the matter and any officer, key employee, or member of senior management with a conflict does not take part in making and is not present for any decision regarding the matter. The policy is monitored and enforced by both the President and CEO and the full Board. A separate organizational policy requires all employees to disclose any conflict of interest in writing upon hire.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The organization's parent (Exeter Health Resources, Inc) has a formal process for determining total compensation for the President and other listed officers that is intended to provide reasonable compensation for achieving the organization's mission, to recognize individual and team performance and to comply with the organization's obligations as a tax-exempt charitable organization. The Executive Committee of the Exeter Health Resources Inc 's Board of Trustees conducts an annual review of the compensation of the President and other listed officers. In doing so, the Committee retains a qualified independent compensation consultant to conduct competitive market analysis of the market ranges of base, incentive, and total cash compensation, and to provide advice concerning the reasonableness of the compensation of the President and other listed officers. The Committee utilizes that analysis and other appropriate information in connection with its annual review and makes recommendations to the full Board of Exeter Health Resources, Inc for adjustment of the President's compensation and the compensation for other listed officers. Information which the committee may consider can include but is not limited to the performance of an individual and/or that individual's contributions to a team, the performance of the organization in whole and in part, the elements of total compensation and salary history, the organization's compensation targets and comparability data, including the data prepared by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Committee. The Committee incorporates a performance appraisal process in the President's and the other listed officers' compensation review. The President and other listed officers are not present when the Committee discusses their respective compensation. In addition, the Committee determines if the threshold requirements for incentive awards are met, consisting of the organization's performance results for quality, operating system excellence and financial performance. The results of the Committee's deliberations are presented to the Exeter Health Resources, Inc Board and include recommendations concerning salary range adjustments and incentive awards and the basis for the Committee's decisions/recommendations. The deliberations of the Exeter Health Resources, Inc Board are conducted in executive session with the independent members of the Board but do include the President only for that period of time in which the Exeter Health Resources, Inc Board has questions concerning the performance of any other listed officer other than the President. The Exeter Health Resources, Inc Board reviews the President's performance and determines if the adjustments and awards recommended by the Committee for the President are in the organization's best interest and for the benefit of the organization and the parent organization. For the Exeter Med Real listed officer positions and Trustees, a adjustments and incentive award
