Return Reference	Explanation
Other	Environmental Health - VPIRG works to protect the public health and our environment from the hidden dangers of toxic chemicals that we're exposed to every day. VPIRG aims to fundamentally reform how chemicals are regulated by encouraging the use of safer alternatives whenever possible and minimizing exposures particularly for children. The discovery of the toxic chemical PFOA in North Bennington made it clearer than ever that more must be done to protect Vermonters from dangerous chemicals. In 2016, VPIRG helped pass legislation that established a committee to make recommendations to the legislature for more comprehensive toxic chemical reform. VPIRG Executive Director Paul Burns served on this committee, which made 13 such recommendations that provided the basis for toxic reform legislation considered in 2017. In addition, seeds treated with neonicotinoid pesticides have been shown to be harmful to bees and other pollinators, but until now the state did not have the authority to regulate them. Legislation that VPIRG helped pass in 2016 gives the state authority to take action to protect pollinators and our environment from treated article pesticides such as coated seeds. We also helped pass separate legislation that created a pollinator protection committee to develop recommendations on how we can better protect bees and other pollinators.

Other	Environment and Zero Waste - VPIRG works to advance policies and solutions that move us closer to zero waste in Vermont. To that end, VPIRG continues to successfully defend the landmark Bottle Bill law from industry attacks and continues to make the case that the law needs to be updated and strengthened to cover water and non-carbonated beverages. In addition, we research and advocate for stronger recycling programs and implementation of extended producer responsibility for the waste their products generate in the system.

Other	Health Care Reform - VPIRG works to implement policies and programs that will ensure that all Vermonters have access to quality, affordable health care when they need it. After more than three years of work, VPIRG and our allies helped pass legislation that will allow dental therapists to offer care to Vermonters. Dental therapists will have a scope of practice that is greater than a hygienist's, but smaller than that of a dentist, and will perform common procedures such as cleanings, fillings and routine extractions. These providers have been shown to improve access to first class care, and are already part of the dental team in more than 50 countries around the world, as well as in Minnesota and Alaska. VPIRG worked closely with our partners at Planned Parenthood to pass legislation that will improve access to birth control for all Vermonters. Because of this law, Vermonters are now guaranteed access to contraceptives beyond what's included in the Affordable Care Act, including vasectomies. Women will now be able to get up to a full year's prescription for oral contraceptives, and it will be easier to access long acting reversible contraceptives, which have been shown to dramatically reduce unplanned pregnancies.

Other	General Membership Services - As the largest membership-based environmental and consumer advocacy organization in the state, VPIRG provides educational and informational resources on our campaigns and related issues to over 55,000 members and supporters annually VPIRG serves as a go-to resource for individuals and groups to learn about public interest policy issues and opportunities for making their voices heard on issues at critical times throughout the year VPIRG also regularly provides training to activist members in core skills such as writing a letter to the editor, speaking in public about policy issues, organizing local community meetings, and how to lobby their elected officials
