Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	Income Tax: Key qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and its income, other than unrelated business income, is not subject to federal or state income taxes. Key reported no unrelated business income. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, Key may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of Key and various positions related to the unrelated business income taxes related to its real estate rental, and which is included in other income in the statements of activities and changes in net assets. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during the periods covered by these financial statements. Key could be subject to routine audits by the Internal Revenue Service, however, there are currently no such audits pending or in progress.
