Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part II	President Rabinowitz has served at the University since 1972, including 20 years as president and before that as dean and as a tenured member of the law school faculty. In 2016, in order to recognize that service and assure retention of his services as president, and to provide appropriate retirement benefits for him and termination of his tenure rights, the University entered into a deferred compensation arrangement with the president. Pursuant to IRS reporting rules, the deferred compensation is required to be reported during the retention period although payments will not be received until a later date.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part II	The president is a nonvoting member of the Board of Trustees.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Officer Compensation All items identified on Line 1a are included as compensation on both the employee's W2 and on Form 990, Schedule J. A payment for personal services, reimbursing for personal financial services, was provided to an officer and included on the employees W2 and on Form 990, Schedule J.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1b	Payment or reimbursement is pursuant to a written agreement.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part II, Items C and D	Compensation In accordance with IRS regulations, items reported in columns C and D include University contributions to group retirement and nontaxable group benefits paid by the University. These items include the University's contribution to a qualified 403(b) plan, with contributions varying based on length of service, as limited by IRS regulations; the University-paid portion of group health care benefits (cost vary by employee selected plan); and the University-paid costs of other nontaxable benefits including life and disability insurance, and tuition payments. All group benefits apply equally to all non union employees or as set forth in collective bargaining agreements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J	The University contributes to retiree health and life benefits for former employees, including former officers.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2	As reflected on statements filed annually with the University, other than listed below, no officer, director, trustee, key employees, highest compensated employees or highest compensated professional or other independent contractors receiving any compensation from the organization is related to any other such entity through family or business relationships. Two Trustees, Robert Rosenthal and Martin Greenberg, have reported an indirect business relationship whereby an entity in which one trustee is an officer is managing an investment portfolio for a trust controlled by another trustee. Trustee Miller disclosed that he has an investment in a fund in which Trustee Guthart is a principal.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part IV, Line 9	In the ordinary course of business, the University provides information to students and parents regarding eligibility for Title IV student assistance, including student and parent loans, University scholarship and loan programs, and internal and external payment plan arrangements which are available to finance tuition and fees at Hofstra. In addition, the University is engaged in the collection of tuition and fee balances from students for the current and prior terms, including entering into agreements for the collection and payment of amounts due and owing.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b	Form 990 is prepared by the University, and reviewed by an outside tax consultant. The SVP for Financial Affairs and Treasurer also reviews the return with the President, SVP for Planning and the SVP for Legal Affairs and General Counsel. The final return is submitted to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees and the full Board of Trustees prior to signing and filing the return.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15	The Hofstra University Board of Trustees Compensation Committee has oversight of all elements of executive compensation and reports to the entire Board on such matters. Specifically, the Committee reviews the compensation of the President and officers and other key employees. The Committee assesses and approves the reasonableness of the compensation of the President; compensation for other officers are recommended by the President to the Board of Trustees. The University provides the necessary data including peer comparisons compiled from 990 tax return disclosures to the Committee and the Board in order for the review to take place each year. Members of the Committee, as well as any third party providing professional advice to the Committee, must be independent and have no conflicts of interest as to the compensation being reviewed, the officer who is being reviewed, or any products or services being considered. Such review includes a comparison of data as presented on the 990 tax return of comparable institutions, adjusted as appropriate for the New York metropolitan area and updated to the present year. Consideration is given to the breadth and complexity of programs, such as medical and law schools. The review also includes an assessment of the duties and responsibilities of each officer and the overall performance of each. From time to time, the University engages an outside consultant to review the comparables and to assist the Committee in its deliberations. The Committee reviews its recommendations with the Board of Trustees for final approval. The actions of the Committee and Board of Trustees are set forth in the minutes, including the information reviewed in determining comparability and the basis for determining that the compensation is reasonable.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	The University's bylaws set forth a conflict of interest policy for Trustees prohibiting certain transactions and requiring disclosure of any conflict that might arise. Annually, all Trustees must complete and sign a compliance and disclosure statement which is reviewed and maintained as a matter of record by the University's General Counsel. Disclosures are brought to the attention of the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees. In addition, there is a conflict of interest policy for all administrative employees and certain union employees prohibiting certain actions and requiring disclosure of any conflict that might arise. Annually, employees must complete and sign a compliance and disclosure statement which is reviewed and maintained as a matter of record by the Office of Human Resources. Any questionable activity is not permitted until the appropriate Vice President has determined that sufficient safeguards exist to fully protect the University's interests and the University's General Counsel has reviewed.
