Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Community Living Services - We provide a comprehensive Community Living Service program for people in New York City, Putnam, and Rockland County with developmental disabilities, affording them the opportunity to live in an apartment or group home. Specialized living arrangements are available for individuals who also have chronic health conditions. The organization has 577 people living in 133 residences certified as Individual Residential Alternatives (IRA) and 153 who live in fourteen residences certified as Intermediate Care Facilities (ICF). Included in those totals are four ICFs and one IRA serving 64 people that provide around the clock, on-site nursing services. There are also four individuals receiving At-home Residential Habilitation Services. Day Services - Our Day Services provide an inclusionary program where people are integrally involved in their community and offered an array of services individualized to meet each person's unique needs to learn skills for community living. The programs include opportunities for more than 1,000 people to participate in integrated, community-based activities, including volunteer opportunities at community sites and participation in community restoration and gardening projects. PROGRAM EXPENSES $183,175,531 PROGRAM REVENUE $195,873,038

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Health Care Centers - Metros Article 16 clinic provides a multidisciplinary therapeutic approach to individual care which addresses the long-term needs of the developmentally and intellectually disabled population. We incorporate services from an array of licensed healthcare providers ranging from occupational, physical, and speech therapists, to social workers and psychologists, keeping in mind a client-centered approach, based on medical recommendation and eligibility requirements. Individuals are evaluated and programs are designed for clients to learn new skills over a contemplated period of time or to receive services intended to maintain their current skill set. Our goal is to maximize independence, including through alternative solutions. We are dedicated to addressing the needs of clients with chronic impairments and assisting in building bridges to a better quality of life.
