Part VI, Line 2	Volunteers (patients) who consent to participate in research studies (protocols) are treated without charge. Unlike most hospitals, the Rockefeller University Hospital does not routinely provide standard diagnostic and treatment services. Admission is selective, research participants (patients) are enrolled in studies by hospital Licensed Independent Practitioners (LIP's) solely because they meet the inclusion criteria of the illness or condition being studied, or because they are healthy volunteers and are also needed for study. Thus, all research participants are volunteers, and as such are important partners in the research process. Without volunteers, significant advances in biomedical knowledge could not otherwise be achieved.
