Poor quality of care contributes to low utilization of services, which exacerbates poor health and mortality related to sex, reproduction, HIV, and reproductive cancers. People in humanitarian settings also face serious barriers to services. IPPF/WHR will ensure that all its service outlets provide high-quality services: they must not only provide a minimum, integrated package, but must also be client-centered, rights-based, youth friendly, and gender sensitive. Enable services is priority objective six. Enable services through public and private health providers. With an increasing number of health providers offering sexual and reproductive health services, IPPF/WHR Member Associations have a distinct role in providing technical assistance. IPPF/WHR can ensure that services are responsive to the local community, are client-centered, and provide rights-based, supportive care to all. IPPF/WHR will develop new formal partnerships with public and private providers. IPPF/WHR will deliver pre- and in-service training for medical personnel and integrated sexual and reproductive health services in partner facilities, and strengthen supply chain management and quality of care. Institutional development is priority objective seven. Enhance operational effectiveness and double national and global income. IPPF/WHR is committed and has an ethical obligation to make the most of its resources and to be flexible and responsive to changing political and economic contexts. To maximize the number of people IPPF/WHR can serve, it needs to increase its operational effectiveness. IPPF/WHR remain relevant, responsible, and efficient in how it seeks funding, translates it into development outcomes, and sustains services to meet demand. IPPF/WHR is evolving its operations and financial structures to incorporate diverse business models that are fit for purpose in each of the specific contexts IPPF/WHR works. IPPF/WHR will ensure ongoing funding for its services by supporting Member Associations to develop social enterprises, recruiting and retaining staff and volunteers that bring business planning, market analysis, communications, and performance management skills, and strengthening financial and performance management at all levels. Volunteers and supporters is priority objective eight. Grow IPPF/WHRs volunteer and activist supporter base. IPPF/WHRs work is demanded and delivered by communities. This groundswell of grassroots support gives legitimacy and is the foundation of IPPF/WHRs political advocacy. Opposition groups, a vocal minority in many places, threaten the gains that the sexual and reproductive health and rights movement has achieved, and there is now a need to grow and lead the volunteer and activist supporter base for sexual and reproductive health and rights at local levels to present a clear, alternative voice to groups that do not support sexual and reproductive rights. |
