Part II-B, Line 1i - Other Activities Description	AGS advocates and informs congress/legislators on the field of geriatrics and the importance of the health care of older adults. It informs its members of legislative alerts and updates by making available information on its website and through e-mail alerts about important issues related to geriatrics and the healthcare of older adults. AGS also reviews current legislation as it related to geriatrics and the care of older adults by offering summaries and status information about key bills related to the field of geriatrics. AGS informs its members as to how the individual congressmen and congresswomen may vote and has voted on such bills. Finally, AGS informs its members of how best to communicate with congressional staffers and help their members understand the legislative process.
